

G Find the extra word in each line.Living together in society

- 1 Hell, said Jean-Paul Sartre, is other people, and whether you agree with
- 2 or not, we are all have to learn to live together. We may not always
- 3 approve of that other people's behaviour, but we do have to live with it.
- 4 It is impossible to force other people in to behave exactly how we think
- 5 they should behave. Of course, the law bans from all kinds of behaviour
- 6 and if you can convince to enough people, you might be able to get the
- 7 government to pass a new law. Mostly, though, you have to let off people
- 8 live their own lives, in the same way you expect them to allow you for to
- 9 live your life. You don't have to pretend it that you like how some other
- 10 people live, but letting them to be themselves is often the only choice.

Word formationH Use the word given in capitals at the end of each line to form a word that fits in the gap in the same line.

I had a really stupid (1) with my best friend the other day. It all started because we were talking about (2) and having a family. I said that (3) is important when you are married and she said that she thought that was rubbish and that (4) is much more important. Well, we were (5) to agree and, in the end, she left without saying goodbye. I do hope it doesn't spoil our (6)
